In its review of the several markets for the week ended March 26th, Bradstreet's has the following to say of the downward progress in the price of silver:

Further downward progress was made during the week in the course of the silver market, prices reaching a level below any quotation recorded since October last. Some attempts were made to connect the present exhibition of weakness with the apparent change of attitude on the part of the British administration toward the silver question. According to this view the supposed friendly attitude of Lord Randolph Churchill toward the bimetallic side of the controversy, and the expectation that the Royal Commission would produce conclusions tending to a modification of greater or less degree in the policy of the Government, had much to do with the sustained market for silver which has prevailed since last fall. Furthermore, it is alleged that Churchill's withdrawal from the Cabinet, Lord Salisbury's unyielding attitude on the subject, and the outcome of the Commission's inquiry, have been the leading factors in the recently developed fall. Without consideration how far these or other intangible reasons have been instrumental in this direction, the actual condition of the market during the week has apparently, according to best advice, depended upon the absence of inquiry. Buyers of silver have held off, the natural inference being that they expect still lower figures, and business has been very restricted.

The silly remark of Senator Vest that the Inter-State Commerce law was rushed through Congress "without any knowledge of what it all meant"—the fact being that the bill was discussed from 1876 to 1887—is referred to by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat as one of the few true remarks that the Senator has made. As the journal which endorses the Senator's remark, in the same issue makes the statement evidently evolved from imagination that "the new railway tariffs are subject to the approval of the commission," it is evident that the trouble with those who are decrying the law in advance of its application is that they don't know what it says.

As the period of Mr. Manning's definite retirement from the Treasury draws near, the belief appears to grow that Mr. Fairchild will succeed him, though no authoritative announcement to that effect has been made as yet. Circumstances have seemed to bear out this belief.

It's a cold day, to use the coarse, but expressive, language of the stock exchange, when the Mongolian gets left. The trade dollars are coming back from China.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

Wholesale Indictments.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.
In accordance with the indictments found by the United States Grand Jury on Saturday for conspiracy and perjury in connection with alleged fraudulent land surveys, the following arrests were made to-day: John A. Benson, State Surveyor General Reichert, James R. Glover and W. K. Black. Bonds were given in the cases of Messrs. Reichert and Benson and they were released. Other important arrests are expected to be made to-day.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—Bar silver, 94½.
—A new Italian Cabinet has been formed with Depretis as Minister of Foreign Affairs.
—An American steamer, in the fruit trade between the Bermudas and Baltimore, is reported lost.
—A fire which destroyed $250,000 worth of property occurred at Franklin, Tennessee, yesterday.
—By the falling of the roof of a church in a Sicilian town yesterday, 40 people were killed or injured.
—A fierce storm was raging in northern Dakota and Minnesota last evening, and another blockade is feared.
—Nearly 1,100 carpenters went out on a strike to-day for nine hours and $2.80 a day, and eight hours on Saturday. It is said the last demand is the one to which the employers refuse to yield.

Foul Play Suspected.

ST. PAUL, April 4.
A Mitchell, Dakota, special to the Pioneer Press says the charred remains of Mrs. John Manice, living 12 miles south of here, were found in the burned debris of her house yesterday evening. The fire occurred at 10 o'clock Friday night. Her husband is in California. There is some room to suspect foul play.

BURNED IN HER CABIN

An Important U. S. Supreme Court Decision.

An Important Tax Case.

WASHINGTON, April 4.

A decision was rendered by the United States Supreme Court in an important bank tax case, entitled: "The Mercantile National Bank of the city of New York, against the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the city of New York, and George W. McLean, Receiver of Taxes." This is one of 35 suits brought by the National banks of New York against the municipal authorities of that city to restrain the collection of taxes assessed upon the shares of stock of said bank.

The question raised by the case is whether or not the system of laws enforced in the State of New York is in opposition to Section 5,219 of the revised statutes of the United States, which requires that the taxation of the shares of National banks shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon other monied capital in hands of individual citizens of said State. The Court answers that question in the negative and affirms the decree of the court below in favor of the State.

A Large Labor Vote.

CINCINNATI, April 4.

The weather is pleasant and the election is proceeding quietly, with a full vote. The Republicans claim an easy victory, inasmuch as the Democrats exhibit much indifference as to the fate of their ticket. In the strongest Democratic wards the Labor men construe the Democratic apathy into a sympathy with their party, as they are predicting the election of their ticket. Many manufacturing establishments have closed to enable their employees to vote. The Labor ticket is reported to be receiving many votes.

The Color Line.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 4.

The Montgomery companies, the Greys and the Blues, last night officially resolved to withdraw from the National drill to be held at Washington. A telegram from the Atlanta rifles to the Montgomery military, says they will follow the Montgomery's example, and withdraw. Their action is caused by the entry of two colored companies for the contest.

Drowned by a Flood.

INGERSOLL, Ont., April 4.

The Kings mill dam was carried away by a spring freshet this morning. A tenement house occupied by four families, was swept away by the flood and wrecked. John Bowman and his daughter, a young man named John McLean and a child were drowned, and a man named Laird and his daughter are missing.

Wants to Clean Up.

WASHINGTON, April 4.

Judge Maynard continues to act as Second Comptroller of the Treasury and will not assume his new duties as Assistant Secretary until Wednesday. The delay in making the change is due to Maynard's desire to dispose of certain important matters pending in the Second Comptroller's office.

A Schooner Ashore.

SANDWICH, Mass., April 4.

An unknown, large two-masted schooner ran ashore between Nantucket and Hyannis during a storm last Saturday and sunk, only the mastsheads being visible from the shore. The vessel's crew is supposed to have been lost.

Time for Reflection.

MOUNT STERLING, April 4.

J. J. Cornelson was arrested yesterday and placed in jail to serve out a three years' sentence for having horse whipped Judge Reid, who was induced by so public a disgrace to subsequently commit suicide.

A Carpenters' Strike.

CHICAGO, April 4.

Six thousand carpenters are on a strike here to-day for eight hours and 25 cents an hour. About 90 out of 300 employers have acceded to the demands of the Union.

In Working Order Again.

NEW YORK, April 4.

The Commercial Cable Company's second cable was repaired yesterday. It was found to have been injured by ice. The system is now in working order again.

A Street-Car Outrage.

PATTERSON, N. J., April 4.

A loud explosion almost immediately followed by another last night, created a panic. Some miscreant had placed torpedoes on the car track and they had exploded under the passing cars. Fortunately the force was expended on the iron trucks of the cars, which were badly shattered and no body was hurt. Efforts to find the author of the outrage were unavailing. This is the third attempt made recently to blow up the street cars.

Death of a Philanthropist.

NEW YORK, April 4.

Miss Catharine Wolf, a well-known and charitable lady of this city, died at her residence on Madison avenue this morning.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

The Ameer Alarmed.

LONDON, April 4.

A Lahore paper announces that the Ameer of Afghanistan is seriously alarmed over the discovery that a number of native tribes are combining against him, and has appealed to the Indian authorities for help and advice. The Afghans declare that their country has been secretly sold to the British, and that the railway to Candahar has been sanctioned by the Ameer to facilitate their advance. The fanatical element of the people is rapt against the Ameer who has removed his treasury to Tizabad, whether he will retire himself, if he is defeated by his dissatisfied subjects. Other accounts say that the Ghilzais are restless under the Ameer's tyranny, and have asked the Indian authorities to depose him. The Pioneer asserts that Dufferin, the British Viceroy, received disquieting news from Afghanistan while at Allahabad recently.

Russian Emigrants.

SOFIA, April 4.

The two men who were imprisoned for making an attempt to assassinate the Prefect of Rostchuk are named Kavassoff and Ivanoff respectively. They are natives of Russian Bessarabia, and lived at Rostchuk until the revolt occurred, having relations with Kischeneff, the Chief of the Revolutionary Committee.

The Journalists Shut Out.

MADRID, April 4.

In consequence of the finding of a case of gun powder with a cartridge fuse attached, in the doorway of his bureau, the President of the Cortes has cancelled all cards of admission to the Parliament building, held by journalists, both foreign and native.

San Francisco Booms.

The following review of the local realty market for March is taken from the Real Estate Circular, published by Thomas Magee, and just issued:

Since the year 1868 and the Spring of 1869 we have not seen such an active demand for real estate as there was last month. The demand, indeed, has to a slight extent partaken of the character of a rush. This activity was not for large, but mostly for properties worth $2,000 to $10,000. Speculators have appeared, in consequence of this activity, and, as they cannot well exist or rush prices above fair figures without the aid of the credit system, we may expect that there will be a boom in mortgages, as well as a boom in prices. By giving the terms of one-fourth cash, a block was last month sold for fully 25 per cent over its present market value. There were 392 sales made last month, amounting to $1,610,293, against 252 sales in February, of the value of $916,449. There is now more business property on the market than there has been for several months. Good as the demand for such property is, it is now completely dwarfed by the demand for lots at $1,500 to $3,000, houses and lots worth $3,000 and $7,000, and prospective business properties worth $6,000 to $20,000.

A Distressing Suspicion.

The Hawthorne Bulletin says:

There is no use to mention names, but both parties are well known in Hawthorne. They were married the other night. The next morning the bride asked her husband to loan her corset for her. He did so. Then the bride of a night burst into violent sobbing. She cried as if her dear little heart were going to break. The thoroughly alarmed husband tried in vain to soothe and calm her, but it was several minutes before he could do so. Finally responding to his earnest entreaties to tell him what was the cause of her anguish, she blurted out: "Oh, Jimmy; if you hadn't loaned a thousand before, you could never have done it like that."

Knights of Labor.

An exchange says: "A big movement is said to be on foot among the Knights of Labor to depose the entire Powderly administration, except Barry of Michigan, at the October convention of the General Assembly at Minneapolis." Should Mr. Powderly be succeeded by a radical extremist, it will not be a year before the Anarchist element will be controlling the Order in Chicago and many other localities.

Glanders.

Dr. Holladay, the Territorial Veterinary Surgeon, has returned to Helena, Montana, from a tour of inspection in the western part of the Territory. He found glanders at Butte, Silver Bow and Deer Lodge, and killed horses at each of those places. He says that Beaverhead is the only county in which traces of the disease were not found.

Of Interest to the Bald-Headed.

Peter Black, of Princeton, Ky., was riding home one night on a mule when the animal tossed him head-foremost into a marsh. Two weeks afterward Peter found that his bald head was covered with a fine growth of young hair. The owner of the marsh now sells the muck at $2 a pound as a hair-grower.

Why endure sleepless nights with that dry hacking cough when, Fryer's Abietene Cough Balsam will give you rest. (It contains no opium.) Price 75 cents. Sold by W. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada. All genuine Abietene preparations bear the fac-simile signatures of D. F. Fryer.

How Garland Located.

Hominy Hill is the name of Attorney-General Garland's farm near Little Rock, Ark. When a young lawyer he found it hard picking at Washington in that State, and one day astonished his office chum by blindfolding himself, stepping up to a map of the State, whirling around three times and jabbing his pencil into the map with the words: "I'm going to move where my pencil struck the map. If it's a town I'll practice law; if it's a country I'll farm it; if it's a river I'll go to steamboating." The pencil struck Little Rock, and there he went.

No Leap Year.

There will be no leap year between 1896 and 1904. The ordinary test of division by four would make 1900 a leap year, since no remainder would be left, but, in revising the calendar, Pope Gregory XIII found that it would be necessary to count as leap years only those centennial years which could be divisible by 400 without a remainder.

Southern Cotton Factories.

A $500,000 cotton factory is to be built at Fort Smith, Ark.; a $100,000 one at Charlotte, N. C.; one at Airy, N. C.; one at Cleveland, Tenn.; one at Athens, besides numerous expansions in the way of machinery and additions. A co-operative manufacturing company will erect a $100,000 mill at Georgetown, Texas. An immense cotton factory is to be erected at Columbus, Miss.

Merit Will Tell.

Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Abietene Remedies" were awarded diplomas at the late California State Fair at Sacramento and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. W. Pinniger is agent for these celebrated "Abietene Remedies" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

Happiness and Health.

Are important problems, the former depending greatly on the latter. Everyone is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggist, Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nev.

JOTTINGS.

Those in need of a fresh milk cow should read the 50-cent column. St. Jacobs Oil is the antidote to pain, no matter by what it is caused. The best is always the cheapest, as you will find by buying your shoes at H. A. Winton's. Red Star Cough Cure does not de-range the stomach. It is free from noxious ingredients. J. F. Altkens's wood supply seems to be inexhaustible, for he never fails to promptly fill all orders. His long experience as a stationer has made C. J. Brookins acquainted with just the quality wanted, and he is never "just out" of the kind asked for. Besides his beef, pork and mutton, J. Frazer has head-cheese, sausage, boneless ham and bacon, and cooked corned beef put up in convenient sized cakes. C. A. Thurston is prepared to supply everybody with the daily and weekly papers, and all the leading magazines. He also keeps the latest of everything in the line of sheet music. Eastern cream corn meal, chipped beef and Honey Lake apples as sound as the day they were picked from the trees. Examine them and be convinced, at Coffin & Larcombe's. Those fine Honey Lake apples just received by E. C. Leadbetter, unlike the quality raised on the other side of the Sierras, do not wilt or shrivel up, but are as plump and smooth as when gathered.

Looks Bad.

Says the Esmeralda News, published at Hawthorne, Esmeralda county: This county has a $50,000 court-house and, under the provisions of a law passed by the last Legislature, it will have a $3,000 hospital at the county seat. There are not less than 50 children attending the Hawthorne public school, and, while we boast of a $50,000 pile of brick, etc., and a prospective $3,000 home for the indigent sick, to our shame and disgrace we have no school house. Every attempt to obtain a school house has been murdered in cold blood.

They Want Capital.

The Southern people are chasing Northern enterprise in their eagerness to invest in industrial enterprises, and the municipal authorities, via with each other in extending inducements in sites, freedom from taxation, etc.

LOCAL NEWS.

Happenings of the Day in Reno and Vicinity.

Meeting of County Commissioners. The Board of County Commissioners met this morning. All of the members were present; Mr. Hymers in the chair.

The Board authorized the Reno Water Company to construct a small building in North Ralston street, near Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, for the purpose of covering a filter for the water works, the building to be removed upon 30 days' notice at any time. The street where the building will stand is now unused, and will in all probability not be opened for several years.

J. M. Lamb appeared before the Board and requested that the line dividing the Franktown and Lake View School Districts be changed so as to include his farm in the latter. The Board declined to act in the matter until it was presented in the form of a petition.

The petition, asking the Board to reconsider their action in establishing School District No. 19, was considered and denied.

Petition of citizens, asking the Board to establish an electric light at the head of South Virginia street, near the railroad track, was rejected.

Petition for the removal of the post-house was laid over, and W. P. McLaughlin was appointed a committee of one to find a location for the building.

Petition asking the Board to open to public use Third street east to its intersection with First street was laid over.

At half-past 3 o'clock the Board was still in session, considering bills presented against the county for payment.

A New Opera House.

From C. W. Borton a GAZETTE reporter learns that McKisick & Sheldon have decided to put up an opera house on the corner of Plaza and Sierra streets. The building is to be of brick, 50 by 90 feet, two stories high, with a seating capacity of 1,000 people. The lower part is to be arranged for two stores. The seats of the dress circle are to be elevated and of the latest style; each chair will contain a hat rack and a cane or umbrella holder. Mr. Borton says work will be commenced on the new building as soon as the brick can be made, and he thinks the house will be ready for occupancy before December next.

An Unfortunate Accident.

On Saturday last Frank Kearney, an old-time Comstocker, but for some time past employed as janitor and gardener at St. Mary's school, met with a serious accident and one which will be liable to disable him for some time. He was doing some work in the little theater of the school that required the use of a long step-ladder. While on the top of the same it slipped, throwing him heavily to the floor, badly fracturing the humerus at the elbow. Dr. Bishop was sent for, and attended to the injury, but fears Mr. Kearney will be unable to use his arm for a long time, and that if he ever fully recovers its use he will be very fortunate.

A Midnight Blaze.

At about half-past 11 o'clock last Saturday night a large fire was seen near the railroad some five miles east of town. Believing it to be the Central Pacific trestlework burning, the switch-engine provided with hose and pump was, with a party of employees of the company and volunteers, sent to the scene, when it was found that only the tules on either side of the track were burning. No damage was done.

A Beautiful Piece of Work.

The hat and cap store of John Sunderland on Virginia street is undoubtedly the handsomest in Reno, the walls and ceiling having just been elegantly papered and trimmed with gilded molding. The design is exquisite and elaborate. T. F. Laycock, the artist, superintended the work.

Late Trains.

Saturday night's west-bound express, in two sections, arrived about two hours late, and yesterday morning's east-bound overland did not arrive until 8 o'clock last evening, the latter delay having been caused by the wreck near Auburn.

Stock Shipments.

Six cars of beef cattle shipped from Humboldt by Brandenstein & Co., unloaded here Saturday night, were reshipped last evening, and 19 cars were unloaded here to rest last evening, to be forwarded to-night.

Higher Price for Beef.

San Francisco butchers in town are said to be offering 8 1/2 cents per pound for beef cattle, delivery to be made any time within 30 days.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

The Silver State of the 2d inst. says: Mart Smith, a well-known and respected citizen of Tuscarora, died of pneumonia at 4 o'clock this morning, after a week's illness. He was the agent of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express, and of the Tuscarora Stage Line, and a Commissioner of Elko county.

Railroad Passes Held by Eureka.

Will the canceling of railroad passes have any effect on the citizens of Eureka?—Sentinel. The Inter-State Commerce law affects only those not in the employ of such railroad companies.

From Hamilton.

Eugene Howell, of the Sweetwater Mining Company, Hamilton, is in town. Mr. Howell, it will be remembered, nearly perished from cold last Winter, having become lost while returning from Treasure Hill through a severe snowstorm, to Hamilton. His feet were badly frozen, but by good medical treatment he is now able to walk about. He leaves on to-night's train for Paso Robles Springs in California, where he will test the curative virtues of the mud baths.

Mr. Howell reports times quiet at Hamilton. The Sweetwater Company continues to employ a force of miners in the Stafford mine. A tunnel is being run to tap the Hidden Treasure ledge. The header is in a distance of about 1,000 feet, and at a further distance of 150 or 160 feet the desired point will be reached. Considerable good ore has been cut through in running the tunnel.
